

NURSES PLOT

The Nightingale Pledge, originally created in 1893 by a committee by Lystra Gretter, has been traditionally cited by nursing graduates Honors or Pinning. A copy of this pledge is located in the upper garden area of the International Peace Garden. Florence Nightingale was born in Florence Italy on 5/12/1820. English nurse. Many modern techniques can be traced back to Because of her dedicated and tireless work during the Crimean became known as the "lady of the lamp." The lamp icon is recognized the symbol of nursing. The shining light of the lamp is a symbol devotion, which nurses administer to the sick and injured in their field. During the Candle lighting segment of the nurses' pinning ceremony, students honor and recognize the ideals and dedication of Nurse Nightingale.