Damage Deposits:

A damage/security deposit is required in the amount of $100.00, if there is no alcohol served or $300.00, if alcohol is served. The damage/security deposit is required with the Agreement Form. If a cancellation is necessary, you must notify the International Peace Garden two months in advance of the reserved date to receive your damage/security deposit refund.

After inspection of the facility following your event; your security/damage refund check may or may not be rewarded to you. The damage/security deposit is returnable as determined by the CEO of the International Peace Garden. His determination that the building was left dirty or items broken is the only criteria for the International Peace Garden to keep the damage deposit. His decision is final and not negotiable.

Catering/Food Preparation:

The Lodge kitchen can be used for any function with each group securing the caterer of their choice. The International Peace Garden has an in-house caterer to accommodate you with menus to suite your budget. The office may provide you with the names and telephone numbers of caterers that have provided service within the Garden. If you are having a caterer, you are to inform the International Peace Garden office of their name, address and contact person prior to rental. Any arrangements with a caterer are strictly your responsibility and at your discretion. The International Peace Garden will not be held liable for any situations that may result from such catering services, and/or food preparation. Any equipment damaged will be assessed to the group renting the Lodge.
